I Can Be Anything

I Can Be Anything

Rosalyn Burroughs

Grandad and his freinds were sleeping before Emily came.

But today Emily had a suprise to wake them up!

'I Found Them Outside'
Said Emily

'I used to research all kinds of bugs' Said Grandads Friend

...I went on hundreds of advnetures learning about them'

'That's Amazing!' Said Emily

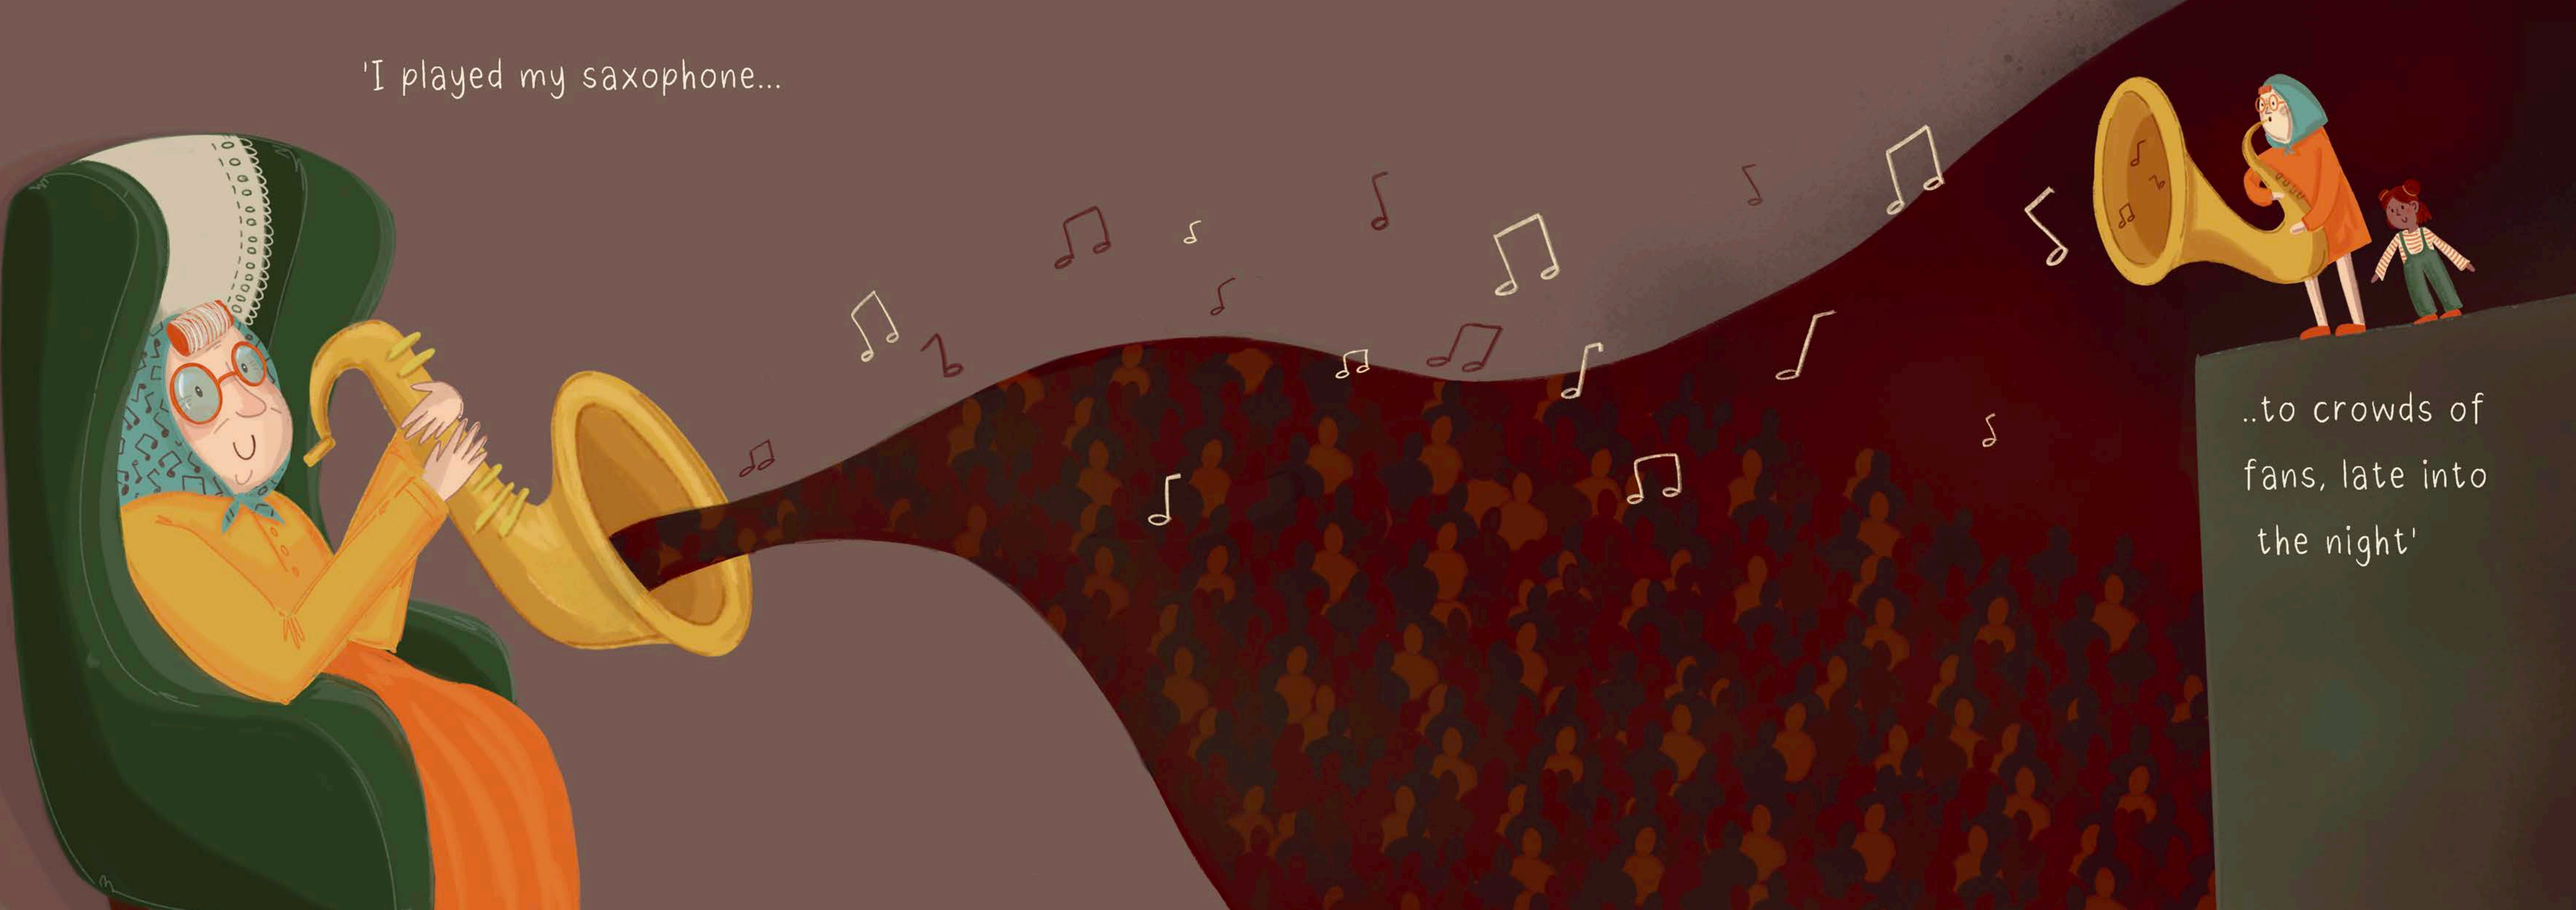

'What did you do?'

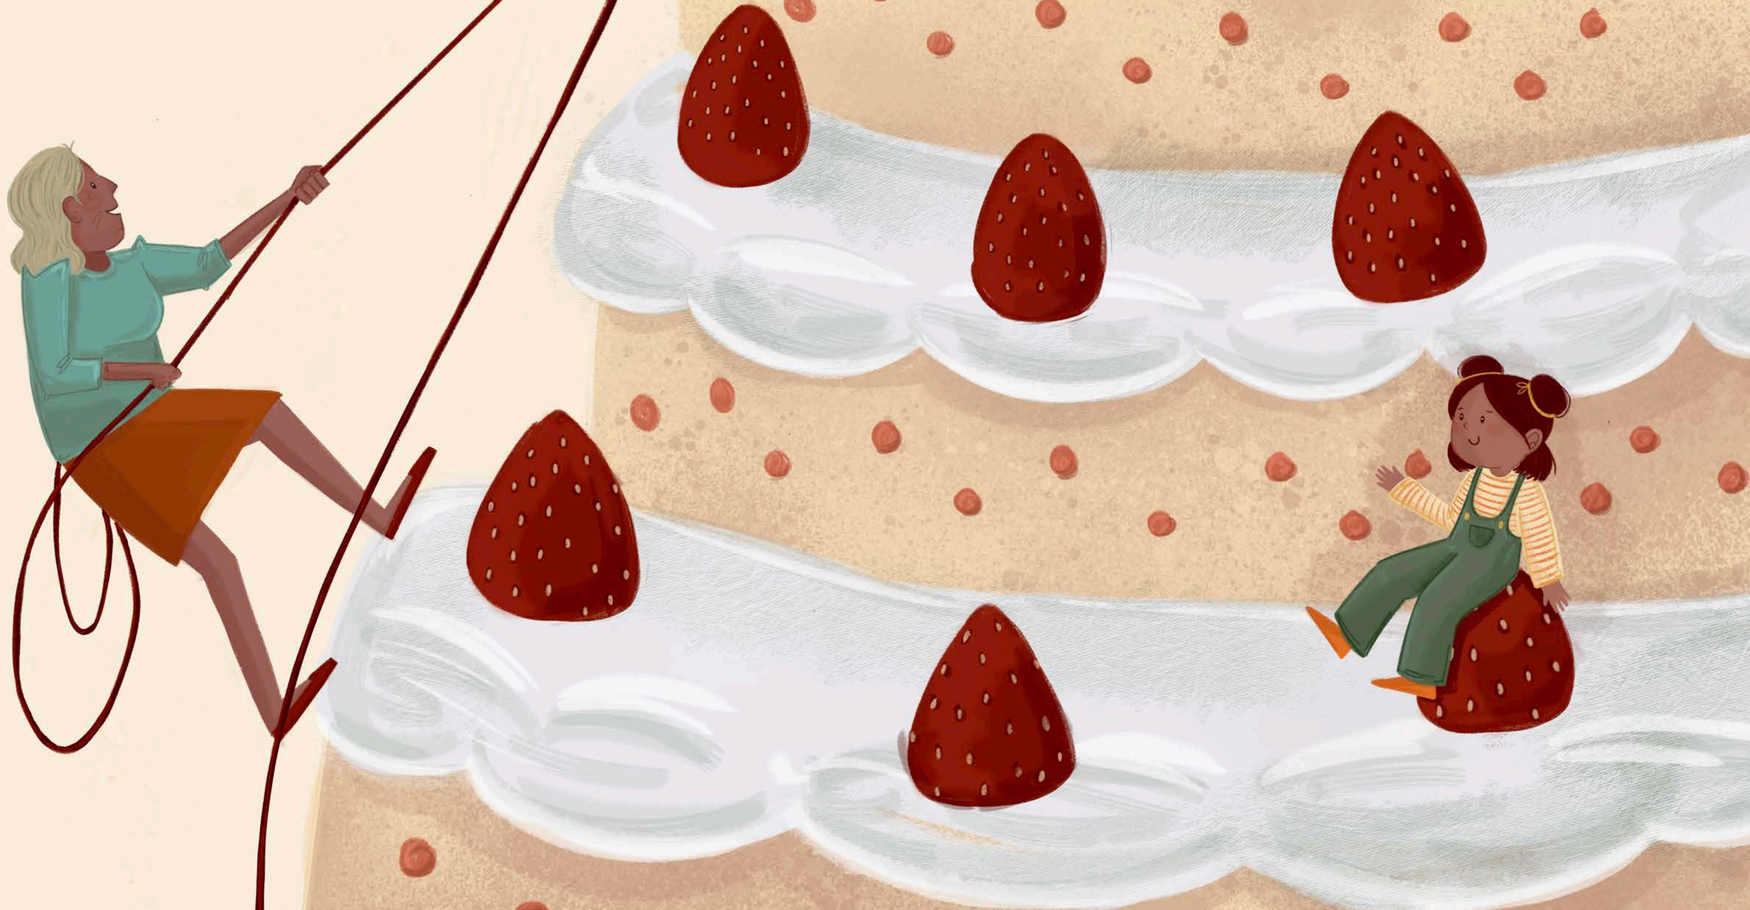

I was a tightrope walker...

'Don't look down'
'Walking far into the sky,
from building to building'

'I played my saxophone...
..to crowds of fans, late into the night'

'I was a Baker and spent all day making cakes that were taller than you...

...with new colours and
flavours every week'

'That is amazing!
What did you do
Grandad?'

I was a deepsea diver
fighting monsters at the bottom of the ocean
