

Fempocalypse

@Schoabe

In apocalypse
movies the main character
is always a young buff man

His
masculine strength and violent
tendencies
save the day.

Everyone
wants to team
with this lone wolf

However, once a few years have passed and a settlement free from zombies has formed

I can't help but think men won't have a clue how to live.

Cooking, cleaning, foraging, raising animals, first aid, sewing...

'Women's jobs' seem pretty essential.

If an apocalypse ever happens

I'm teaming with the
trad-wives
